The contempt alleged is violation of the judgment in W.P.(C) 391/2005. It is submitted that a writ appeal therefrom has already been preferred. But neither side is able to tell the number. However, the parties are at ad idem that such a writ appeal is preferred and judgment is reserved. This contempt case for the time being is closed with leave and liberty to the petitioner to move afresh in case a necessity arises pursuant to the writ appeal judgment.

P.R. RAMAN,
(JUDGE)
